

User Rights and Responsibilities

Fenerbahçe University Library, aims to support the educational activities of University, to meet the information resource needs, to develop and maintain its services in order to provide a comfortable and safe working and research environment.

It is the responsibility of the Library users to contribute to these goals and to respect other users. For this reason, users must comply with the library conduct and avoid behavior that could adversely affect the work or research of other users.

Activities prohibited in the library include, but are not limited to:

- Talk loudly
- Talking by mobile phone
- Listening the loud music, watching video and using programs like Skype or Gtalk in the library. Please use headphones for audio or video
- Bringing food and drink to the library (excluding water)
- Relocating furniture
- Sleeping in the library or settling down that will spoil the general view
- Leaving work areas untidy and dirty
- Damaging or misusing library materials and equipment
- Keeping a place in the library with personal belongings. Working tables that have not been used for more than 20 minutes are emptied and made available to other students who need space.
- Users are obliged to comply with the current "Intellectual and Artistic Works Law" while benefiting from the publication/material.
- Legal administrative and legal action may be initiated against the user due to his/her opposition to this law. The user cannot impose any legal liability on the University/Library for this opposition to this article.
- The security of the library collection is ensured by a magnetic door control system, any library material that has not been borrowed should not be taken out
- Otherwise, Library staff will have the right to search for your bag or belongings
- In case of failure to comply with the rules, the provisions of ' Student Discipline ' are applied